WINNERS OF THE GARDEN GROVE STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL CONTESTS

GARDEN GROVE, CA (May 28, 2019) -- Winners of four contests recently held at the 61st annual Garden Grove Strawberry Festival received trophies and thunderous applause at the Garden Grove amphitheater. The contests were held May 24th through the 27th in the festival amphitheater. Trophies were presented by Miss Outstanding Teen Kassidy Aslay and Miss Garden Grove Maaikée Pronda.

Grand prize winners in the Tiny Tots King and Queen contest were five-year-old Garden Grove resident Kaydence Fizer who was named queen and Connor Harrison, a four-year old from Anaheim who took the title of king. They received their trophies from Kassidy Aslay and had the honor of riding in the May 25th parade.

Little Jordynn Naranjo of Yorba Linda won the Best Hair category for the 13 to 24 months age group, and went on to win the top trophy in the Berry, Berry Beautiful Baby Contest. Her older sister Jaelynn had won the top title in 2014.

There were some amazing singers who entered the annual Strawberry Idol Karaoke Contest and three took home trophies. They were Rachel Leaders of La Habra, Alyssa Simmons of Santa Ana, who celebrated with her young daughter, and GH Halverson of Murrieta.

Jamie Ginger Lopez from the city of Orange was the winner of the Teen Red Head category and then went on to win the top prize in the Red Head Roundup Contest. Kassidy Aslay and Maaikée Pronda happily presented her with both trophies.

The four contests are held annually as part of the Garden Grove Strawberry Festival. Winners are chosen by a panel of festival board members and local citizens. There were multiple categories in each contest and category winners also received trophies. Photos of winners were posted on the festival website, www.strawberryfestival.org.
